

2018 Guide towards court certification for Languages Other Than Spanish:

First, enroll in our English Written Prep: use the promo code or101 during check-out to get $50 off the final price. This is a self-paced online course- meaning you'll be able to log in and out of the class without losing your spot. This first step is necessary to prepare you for the first test you'll take with the state as well as serve an introduction to the world of court interpretation.

<http://www.delamoralearning.com/courses/english-written-exam-prep>

Second, you have until May 7th, to enroll for the next orientation taking place in Orlando on June 18th-19th, 2018. The cost is $150.00 for a Florida resident or $300.00 if you are not. To register print the following form and mail it to the following address:

Form: <http://www.flcourts.org/core/fileparse.php/536/urlt/Orientation-Workshop-Registration-Form.pdf>

Court Interpreters Program
Office of the State Courts Administrator
Supreme Court Building
500 South Duval Street Tallahassee, Florida 32399-1900

Make cashier's check or money order payable in U.S. funds to: State of Florida

Third, enroll to our Language Neutral Skill Building starting this April. Get 10% off by using the promo code promo10 during checkout. This course will help you specifically prepare for the oral exam which is the most important step in the certification process.

To enroll: <https://langneutral.eventbrite.com>

Fourth, After the skill building- you must continue to practice everyday. If you'd like to schedule in some private tutoring lessons contact us. We are happy to honor a 20% discount. We also have additional practice materials that will help you keep up your skills for only $25.00.

To buy more practice materials: <http://interpreter-training.com/store/>

You can also find excellent free resources to continue to build your legal terminology and task yourself with the responsibility to read a little bit everyday through the following website:

<http://www.ncsc.org/Services-and-Experts/Areas-of-expertise/Court-statistics.aspx>

Fifth, after you have finally attended the orientation, then you can register for the English Written Exam. You can take this test online, so we recommend you register the moment you get home from the orientation.

<https://tara.vitapowered.com/WorkflowEngine/CustomUrl/office/CreateCandidate/osca>

Sixth, keep an eye out for any workshop or classes that we might be putting out during the summer time to help you continue your preparation for the oral exam. AND start going to court! you must have at least 20 hours of court observation before you take the oral exam. For details on this, visit: <http://www.flcourts.org/core/fileparse.php/536/urlt/Courtroom-Observation-Hours-Summary-of-Requirements.pdf>

The form that you must fill out to prove you went to court for at least 20 hours is the following:

<http://www.flcourts.org/core/fileparse.php/536/urlt/Courtroom-Observation-Hours-Reporting-Form.pdf>

Seventh, register to take the Oral Exam.

Here is a fun checklist before enrolling to take the oral exam: http://www.flcourts.org/core/fileparse.php/284/urlt/oral_qualifications.pdf

The cost is $200.00 for FL residents. The test dates for the second half of 2018 are still to be announced. but once you know that date, and once you are ready to register, the form is the following- which must be mailed physically:

<http://www.flcourts.org/core/fileparse.php/536/urlt/CICRP-Form-Oral-Performance-Exam-Registration-Form.pdf>

Last but not Least, Become registered in the courts. You do this by filling out another form and paying one more fee. The application is the following:

<http://www.flcourts.org/core/fileparse.php/536/urlt/Registration-Application.pdf>

To find ALL of these forms and to check where to find the newest test dates:

<http://www.flcourts.org/resources-and-services/court-services/court-interpreting/prospective-court-interpreters.stml>

-

And of course, our web site to check on future classes: www.delamoratraining.com

